

All dressed up and somewhere
to go.

START / FINISH

0400 hours and ready to start.

approaching the 20k turn

Grabbing one for the road.

Weird turtles

70 pound load and
still smiling.

Thank goodness for the light tail wind coming down the river.

out of the boat and back on the feet.

some words of encouragement from his fans before the final 6k

A photograph of a residential street. In the foreground, there is a paved road. In the middle ground, there are several houses and trees. A large, dark tree is prominent in the center. To the left, there is a utility pole. In the background, there are more houses and trees under a clear, light blue sky.

500m to go. I ran along side Will for a bit here and was talking to him but he said "Dad, I am not really processing anything right now. I am just trying to keep moving." Then he put on a sprint for the last 200m!

Congratulations from the CO

taking a load off.

Lest we forget.
It's not all fun
and games.
